

WORLD'S MOST EXPENSIVE RUM SOON AVAILABLE IN TRINIDAD

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of Independence of Trinidad and Tobago, Angostura has created the world's most expensive blend of rum, Legacy by Angostura. One bottle of the luxury blend will be auctioned for charity on August 4th in Port of Spain. With only twenty 500ml bespoke decanters available worldwide, the bottle is valued at EUR 20,000.

Like all exceptional blends of spirits, the production of this rum involves just as much art as science and has been a labour of love for the Angostura Master Blenders who have fifty years experience between them. The project has taken six years of meticulous work with seven of the brand's most rare and precious rums making the final recipe.

The youngest rum is 17 years old and all of the rums in the blend have been aged in once used 200 litre American Oak Bourbon casks on site at Angostura's distillery in Laventille.

CEO Robert Wong, of Angostura said, "Complex, smooth and aromatic, "Legacy by Angostura" is the ultimate expression of Angostura rum. We set out to create the greatest sipping rum ever produced and we believe we have achieved something that is both unique and unequalled. Once these 20 bottles have been sold, no more of this liquid will be available, so it's a truly unique opportunity for a few select individuals."

With the average drink setting you back EUR$1400, Legacy by Angostura is guaranteed to be the greatest sipping rum ever produced and the ultimate celebratory tippie of Trinidad's culture and Independence.

Not only is the rum of the highest standard in the world, the decanter, stopper and presentation box are also unique collectors' items. Angostura has engaged Asprey of London, jeweller to the Prince of Wales, to develop the twenty limited edition decanters, which each took over 56 hours to complete using ten different master craftsman.

Notes to editors:

The first bottle of this precious liquid was already launched and being auctioned in Australia.

Based in Trinidad, Angostura is the world's most awarded international rum brand and includes Angostura Reserva, Angostura 5 year old, Angostura 7 year old and its two premium blends, Angostura 1919 and Angostura 1824. Angostura is also the creator of the iconic Angostura aromatic bitters made using a secret recipe blend of herbs and spices since 1824.
