

For immediate release

ANGOSTURA'S RUMS WIN YET MORE AWARDS

Port of Spain, Trinidad. 8th April, 2013. Angostura 1919 rum was the only entry in the Premium category in the Spirits Masters - Rum Masters 2013 Competition, to win a Master award, just eclipsing its 1824 sister rum, which won a Gold, by a few points. Angostura's Reserva rum and its 5 year old and 7 year old rums also won gold awards in their categories.

The field of judges were given the task of tasting 50 rums in varying categories. The judges were: Kane Brooks of Drake & Morgan; Shannon McCoy of Barchick; Stuart Randall of Marquis Vodka; Tim Shanks of The Engineer in London's Primrose Hill; Luca Cordiglieri of China Tang at The Dorchester; and Becky Paskin from Rum Masters, chairing the crew. "It was a daunting task, even for the most enthusiastic of rum fans – which we all were." said Becky Paskin.

Angostura's rums have been winning awards since its introduction into the spirits international market in 2007. This rum range has certainly made a name for itself and is going places.

"We are delighted that 1919 was the only rum in the premium category to win a Master medal" says Genevieve Jodhan, the company's executive manager responsible for International sales and marketing. "This coupled with the fact that 1824 won a Gold medal is very encouraging."

The Spirits Masters is a series of blind tasting competitions, drawing in entries from across the globe. One of the key elements to its success is the quality and the dedication of the judges involved, who are completely independent. Each spirit is judged on its own merit according to the category into which it is entered, and then awarded a Silver, Gold or Master medal.

Results:

Premium category:

Angostura 1919	Master
Angostura 1824	Gold

Gold rum 5 – 7 years category:

Angostura 5 yr old	Gold
Angostura 7 yr old	Gold

White rums:

Angostura Reserva	Gold
-------------------	------

<http://www.thespiritsbusiness.com/2013/03/the-rum-masters-2013-results/2/>

For more information:

Giselle Laronde-West

glarondew@angostura.com